AMERICAN TROOPS PRESS ON FROM GAFSA

Allies Aim Drive To Cut Long Axis Coastal Corridor

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Allied headquarters announced today that American armored troops pushing toward the sea from newly recaptured Gafsa had seized the town of El Guetar after a 12-mile advance, while other Allied columns rolled across the central Tunisian hills in a drive aimed at cutting the 300-mile Axis coastal corridor.

Led by dynamic Lieut.-Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., who once challenged Field Marshal Erwin Rommel to single tank combat, the Americans were reported making rapid progress despite treacherous mine fields planted by the Nazis.

Gafsa fell to U. S. troops Wednesday without the loss of a single soldier.

In northern Tunisia, an Allied communique said, Lieut.-Gen. K. A. N. Anderson's British 1st Army withdrew slightly in the zig-zag struggle with Col. Gen. Jurgen von Arnim's Axis forces, falling back in the Tamera sector some 42 miles west of Bizerte.

Frontline dispatches said British 1st Army troops withdrew Wednesday night from Tamera to new positions three miles to the southwest. The German high command said "an Axis local offensive enterprise is progressing favorably" in the northern sector.

Heavy rains and floods hampered operations on the central Tunisian front, dispatches said.

In the south the British 8th Army executed "slight local adjustments"—whose nature was not specified—"with little interference by the enemy" in the March Line zone.

"Normal patrol activity has continued during the past 24 hours," the communique said.

In addition to the U. S. armored thrust to El Guetar, 73 miles from the Port of Gabes, other American forces were reported moving northeast along a road leading to Mahanes on the gulf coast. French troops were also joining in the offensive. Driving eastward along the upper rim of the Chott Djerid salt marsh toward the coast.

Meanwhile, a CBS broadcast reported that Gen. Sir Harold R. L. G. Alexander, Allied field commander under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, called war correspondents a week ago, and told them they would "hear something interesting within a week."

Authoritative confirmation was still lacking on German reports that the British 8th Army had launched a climactic assault on the March (Little Maginot) Line in (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Tokyo Warns of An Offensive in Pacific

By the Associated Press
Warning that the United States plans to "launch out in a counter-offensive in the Pacific," the Tokyo radio appealed to the Japanese people today to exert greater efforts in the war production program.

"At this very moment," said a Japanese-language broadcast reported by the Federal Communications Commission, "America, regardless of the serious blows dealt her, is planning to carry out her warfare in the air and on the sea. And she is feverishly constructing large and speedy bombers and large-type submarines."

"This fact above all things tells the story of the American plan to launch out in a counter-offensive against Nippon in the Pacific ocean."

British Sink Supply Ships

London, March 19.—(P)—Two British submarines sank six supply ships, a tanker and a naval auxiliary in a recent ten-day patrol in the Mediterranean, the admiralty announced today.

Within ten days two of his majesty's submarines operating in the Mediterranean have sunk four large enemy supply ships, a tanker of medium size and a small supply ship, the admiralty said in a communique. "In addition, they destroyed a naval auxiliary and another small supply ship."

In addition, a minesweeper was so severely damaged she had to be run ashore.

Two of the large supply ships, it said, were torpedoed off Sicily while they were westbound under escort of two destroyers and a sloop. The other two large supply ships were sunk off northern Italy.

The tanker was torpedoed off northwest Sicily, burst into flames and blew up almost immediately, the admiralty said.

HITLER USES NEW MASSES OF RESERVES

Despite Tremendous Pressure Red Army Yields But Slightly in Upper Donets Valley

MORE TOWNS RETAKEN

By the Associated Press
On the Russian front, Soviet dispatches said the Germans had thrown fresh masses of troops, tanks and planes into the bloody struggle for control of the upper Donets river, 15 miles east of Kharkov, but despite the tremendous pressure the Red armies yielded slightly in only one sector.

Hitler's high command said German troops had recaptured Belgorod, 50 miles northeast of Kharkov, and delivered successful attacks northwest of Kursk.

The Nazi command said heavy Russian attacks were beaten off south of Orel, which lies 80 miles north of Kursk, and asserted that Soviet troops encircled below Kharkov were "annihilated."

Frontline reports said the German attacks were as violent as any attempted since the siege of Stalingrad, with the Nazis suffering huge losses in "ceaseless and uninterrupted" thrusts along the river.

Red army engineers planted 600 anti-tank and land mines in the river's ice at one point, blowing up nine German tanks attempting to cross, and at least two Nazi tanks broke through the thin ice crust at another point, drowning the drivers.

On the central front, the Red armies driving along the old Napoleonic highway to Smolensk, vital German base 230 miles west of Moscow, captured more towns beyond newly retaken Izdeshkovo, 75 miles east of Smolensk, and widened their salient on the upper Dnieper river, the Russians said.

Further north, Marshal Semeon Timoshenko's forces reported the slaughter of 800 Germans as Red army shock troops seized more (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Guiana Swing To Giraud Is Hopeful Sign

BY RICHARD G. MASSOCK

Washington, March 19.—(P)—French Guiana's swing to the leadership of Gen. Henri Honoré Giraud raised hopes in Washington today that the French West Indies, Martinique and Guadeloupe, would soon join in the fight against the Axis.

The high commissioner for French colonies in the Caribbean Admiral Georges Robert, was believed to be in diplomatic quarters to face a crisis in his refusal to far to rally to the Giraud side. It was brought nearer by a critical food situation in Martinique, Robert's headquarters, since the United States has sent no food there since the Allied occupation of French North Africa.

Giraud's military mission in Washington confirmed yesterday that the governor of Guiana, and the mayor of its capital, Cayenne, had telegraphed their allegiance to Giraud.

Robert is regarded in some quarters here as an ultra-conservative naval officer reluctant to cooperate in the war against Germany without an order from some superior, presumably Marshal Pétain.

Giraud has been trying to win Robert over to cooperation, through one of his representatives, Gen. Jean Battet, but thus far without avail. The United States has joined in this appeal with a series of broadcasts to the people of Martinique.

Martins Unperturbed By Butter Shortage

Pittsburgh, March 19.—(P)—There's little danger of a butter shortage disturbing the calm at the executive mansion in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Edward Martin, here for a reception last night, remarked that her governor-husband "eats very little butter."

"As for herself, she said: 'I can do without bread or butter. I don't think I would miss them.'"

Enemy Bases Hammered In Pacific Area

MacArthur Sends Bombers On Raids Against Dozen Points

OPPOSITION IS MILD

BY MURLIN SPENCER

Allied Headquarters in Australia, March 19.—(P)—In the most wide-spread aerial sweep against Japanese concentrations ever launched in the southwest Pacific area, Gen. Douglas MacArthur sent his bombers on damaging raids yesterday against more than a dozen points where the Japanese are building up concentrations, an Allied communique said today.

Big Allied bombers ranged from Timor to Salamaua, New Guinea, and Gasmata, New Britain, hitting everything they could find, but they concentrated on the Japanese stronghold of Madang in New Guinea.

Three separate sweeps were made at Madang between Finschafen and Salamaua and more than 35 tons of bombs were poured on the Japanese stronghold, the communique said. Long-range fighters "thoroughly strafed the whole area," it added.

They left the little village in flames with supply and ammunition dumps shooting up flames visible more than 60 miles away.

The Japanese offered air opposition only over Ambona and New Ireland.

A heavily armed Liberator bomber on reconnaissance over Ambona found itself trapped by 10 Japanese fighters. The bomber definitely destroyed four of the enemy planes, probably destroyed two more and damaged one. The Liberator returned home damaged but victorious.

Over Kavieng, New Ireland, a Zero attempted to intercept a Flying Fortress on reconnaissance, but was shot out of action, the communique said. Other reconnaissance planes over the Rabaul (Turn to Page Thirteen)

MAN AND STEPSON ARE DROWNED IN RIVER

Pittsburgh, March 19.—(P)—A man and his stepson drowned yesterday when a home-made boat on which they were carrying sand capsized and sank in the Allegheny river near Harmarville.

Nick Harmar, who saw the boat overturn, identified the victims as his friends, Earl Cunningham, 38, and John, 16. Wadsworth said he started out in a rowboat in an unsuccessful attempt to rescue the two as they struggled to reach shore.

Because of the swiftness of the current, police said no attempt would be made to drag the river for the bodies.

Redistricting Plan Opposed

Harrisburg, March 19.—(P)—Philadelphia Democratic lawmakers expected to oppose the administration congressional reapportionment plan when it starts moving through the Pennsylvania legislature, probably next week.

A measure introduced by senate Republican Leader Weldon B. Heyburn would reinstate the same set-up existing prior to 1942 except that Philadelphia's districts would be reduced from seven to six.

Senator Heyburn disclosed yesterday the senate probably would receive the bill from committee for floor action next week.

A make-shift redistricting plan reducing the state's congressional delegation from 34 to 33 was enacted at the 1942 special session of the assembly as required by the 1940 census. Northern tier and western districts were reshuffled to reduce the total to 32. The 33rd congressman is chosen on a statewide basis.

NO DECISION ON DRAFTING OF WORKERS

President Says He Wants To Avoid National Service Legislation Long As Possible

RICKENBACKER HEARD

Washington, March 19.—(P)—President Roosevelt told a press conference today he wanted to avoid national service legislation just as long as he possibly could.

No decision has been reached on the question of drafting of workers for war industries, Mr. Roosevelt said, and he added that it might be unnecessary to have it, or that eventually it would have to be put into effect.

Questioned as to why he wanted to avoid such legislation, he said he thought it would create a lot more machinery, make things a lot more complicated in a lot of ways, and people would complain of regimentation.

Of course, he remarked, you can't win a war without regimentation.

Declaring that many American industries still are operating on a "share-the-work depression" basis, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker said today the nation has more manpower than it needs "if properly utilized."

Reading from a page of notes, Rickenbacker said that from many discussions with able production men he is convinced that about 5,000,000 men could be salvaged from present war industries by adoption in all war plants of the incentive or piece work plan.

Under the incentive plan as opposed to the 40-hour week and hourly pay rates, he said it would be "ultra conservative" to figure a 33 1/3 per cent increase in production.

ANTHRACITE PARLEY STARTS MARCH 31ST

Scranton, March 19.—(P)—Anthracite mine operators and the United Mine Workers will begin negotiations for a new contract March 31, in (Waldorf-Astoria hotel) New York City.

W. W. Inglis, president of the Glen Alden Coal Company and chairman of the producers' negotiating committee, said he and John L. Lewis, UMW president, reached an agreement on the date yesterday.

The present contract expires April 30. The three anthracite districts of the UMW have agreed to ask a $2 a day increase.

Bill Changing Draft Quotas Is Approved

Washington, March 19.—(P)—Over war department opposition, the rules committee today cleared for house action legislation to give draft deferment priorities to men with dependents and to put draft quotas on a statewide instead of a local board basis.

The committee's action was taken in executive session after Representative Kilday (D-Tex), author of the bill, contended there was no merit in the war department's objections.

Secretary of War Stimson had complained that the measure would create administrative impossibilities for the selective service system.

The war secretary's letter was made public by Chairman Sabath (D-Ill) as the house rules committee resumed hearings on the bill of Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) to put all 33 of Pennsylvania's representatives in congress favor a pay-as-you-go plan. The delegation is split, however, on the issue of forgoing payment of 1942 taxes.

The Democrats have yet to agree on details. The Republican group, however, favors the Carlson plan, similar to the Ruml plan except that the government could collect the tax on either a 1942 or 1943 basis on all incomes of more than $20,000.

Claim of Attack On Convoys Unconfirmed

By the Associated Press
The German high command in its regular communique today reported that U-boats were engaged at the moment in fierce fighting with convoys in the Atlantic.

The claim, broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, was without Allied confirmation.

Much Enthusiasm Is Exhibited By Campaign Workers

Amid much enthusiasm coupled with elation, the more than 200 workers present at last night's first report meeting of the Red Cross War Fund Campaign ran up a total of $23,410.36. The second report meeting will be held in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium on Monday, March 22nd, at 7:15 p. m.

After an opening prayer by Dr. J. A. Davidson, War Fund Chairman B. W. Knapp announced that reports would be called for first and time was given the workers to prepare their report envelopes.

The following is a tabulation of the amounts reported by Divisions:

Problems Of Post-War To Be Discussed

Perhaps Half Dozen Conferences May Be Called to Consider Questions

RELIEF IS FOREMOST

Washington, March 19.—(P)—President Roosevelt disclosed today that perhaps half a dozen United Nations conferences might be called to consider various phases of post-war problems.

Plans are already under way for a conference on food production and distribution for all the populations of the world in the period following the close of the conflict.

In addition, the chief executive told a press conference, probably there would be a meeting on post-war relief.

Beyond that, he said, there might be two or three or four other conferences, mainly in the fields of economics and finance.

Meanwhile, a plea by Anthony Eden that the United States, England, Russia and China should their war-time unity into the framework for a lasting peace encouraged congressional advocates of collective security to new efforts.

Mr. Roosevelt gave no indication as to when or where the conferences might be held, but he indicated that invitations already have gone out to the United Nations for a food parley.

He said he hoped it would not be held in Washington and that he had four or five other smaller (Turn to Page Thirteen)

MOTHER COACHES TOTS TO TELL FALSE STORY

Pottsville, March 19.—(P)—Corp. William Keuch of the state motor police said today that Mrs. Stella Sincavage, charged with first degree murder in the stabbing of her husband, instructed her children to tell the police that he was wounded in a fall on a pointed stick.

The children, Joseph and Jean, twins, 16, and Adele, 7, admitted under questioning that they had received the order and then changed their stories, Keuch said.

The father, Joseph, 43, a miner, died Tuesday night in Ashland State Hospital. District Attorney C. A. Whitelouse accused Mrs. Sincavage of stabbing him with a file during a quarrel Monday night.

Profiteers Hit By Tax Plan

Washington, March 19.—(P)—A new pay-as-you-go tax plan designed to extract higher payments from "war profiteers" was drafted by Representative Walter (D-Pa) today for introduction in the house next week.

Walter said his proposal called for pay-as-you-go payments, beginning July 1, on 1943 normal taxes and also on last year's surtaxes only.

Meanwhile a survey showed that all 33 of Pennsylvania's representatives in congress favor a pay-as-you-go plan. The delegation is split, however, on the issue of forgoing payment of 1942 taxes.

The Democrats have yet to agree on details. The Republican group, however, favors the Carlson plan, similar to the Ruml plan except that the government could collect the tax on either a 1942 or 1943 basis on all incomes of more than $20,000.

U-BOAT YARDS NEAR BREMEN ARE BATTERED

Heavy Load of Explosives Laid on Submarine Construction Center in Germany

ENEMY PLANES DOWNED

London, Mar. 19.—(P)—United States air force bombers hit hard at the heart of Germany's u-boat strength again with a two-hour attack yesterday on Vegesack, 15 miles northwest of Bremen, their fourth foray in force on Germany proper.

Flying without fighter plane escort on the 800-mile round trip that marked the deepest penetration yet effected by Flying Fortresses and Liberators in their daylight attacks on Germany, the American fliers fended off nearly five-score German fighter planes, laid a heavy load of explosives on a submarine construction center, and then fought their way back over the North Sea with the loss of two bombers, a communique said.

Many of the enemy fighter planes were destroyed or damaged, it was announced, but returning gunners said they could keep no accurate check on their victims.

One bomber crew said a direct hit was scored on a submarine. Installations in the repair yards, and partly-completed u-boats were seen by the bombardiers.

The Vegesack foray broke a 48-hour lull in the daylight offensive against the continent.

RAF Venturas went out also to bomb Maasuis in the Rotterdam, Holland, area.

Before the U. S. communique was issued the Berlin radio asserted the Americans believed a "heavy defeat" with the loss of seven planes on the raid.

German raiders struck back last night, dropping some bombs on the east Anglian coast of Britain and causing a small number of casualties. Three enemy planes were reported downed.

The German communique said Nazi planes attacked Norwich and the harbor of Great Yarmouth and that three aircraft were missing. A period of bad flying weather on the continent is believed the reason the Germans have been given a week's breather from the RAF's devastating night bombing raids.

No large-scale attack has been reported since the 1,000-ton onslaught on Essen last Friday night, but routine minelaying in German shipping lanes probably has continued most nights, British observers said.

Objectors in 36th Day of Hunger Strike

Washington, March 19.—(P)—Representatives of private agencies and the government were at odds today, over the "terms" under which two imprisoned conscientious objectors would end their forced-feeding "hunger strike," now in its 36th day.

The men are Louis Krawczyk, 25, of the Bronx, N. Y., and Stanley Murphy, 29, of Queens Village, Long Island, convicted at Buffalo and sentenced to two and a half years in a Danbury, Conn., penal institution for walking out of a conscientious objectors' work camp at Big Flats, N. Y. They had not eaten in 17 days when prison hospital authorities began forcible feeding.

James V. Bennett, director of federal prisons, said, "the two boys are demanding unconditional release. They have declined to cooperate in any way."

Business Halts at Homestead During Visit of Blood Bank

Pittsburgh, March 19.—(P)—Business along the mile-long main thoroughfare in defense-booming Homestead halted for five hours yesterday afternoon while merchants and employees gave phials of blood for American soldiers, sailors and marines.

In the First Methodist church two blocks away, the Pittsburgh chapter, American Red Cross' mobile unit, held "open house" for the donors.

Homestead's "blood donor" day, believed to be the nation's first such co-operative effort by a business district, was arranged by the Red Cross and business men. All employees received their regular pay for the afternoon. The church basement was converted into a 16-bed "hospital" operated by 21 volunteers, five nurses' aides, one doctor and six nurses. Thirty women ran a canteen where the crowd of 200 consumed ten pounds of meat, ten pounds of coffee, five pounds of butter, four dozen eggs and seven gallons of milk, all contributed by merchants.

The thriving steel city ten miles up the Monongahela river from Pittsburgh previously had contributed 2,500 pints of blood.

Buffalo Boys Trek Ended By Police Far From Goal

Plans for a trans-continental tour by four boys from Buffalo were rudely interrupted here this morning by the police when the four lads were rounded up and taken to the police station. The lads had planned a trip to California and left Buffalo yesterday on a bus as far as the Ridge Road, just outside the city, where they adopted the hitch-hiking practice. This took them to Silver Creek, thence to Jamestown and thence to Frewsburg. Here they stopped at a tourist home and a deputy sheriff interviewed them. But a glib story played his suspicions and the tourists moved on into Warren.

At the Patterson Service Station on Pennsylvania avenue, west, they tarried for a time and Mr. Patterson telephoned the police. The lads in the meantime had boarded a westbound truck hanging onto the tailboards. At F.N. tower, west of the city, the truck driver sighted them and put them off. Here Lieut. M. Evan with the police car rounded them up.

At the police station they gave the names:

Richard Knoep, 13,432 Masten avenue, Buffalo.

James Taylor, 12,523 Masten avenue, Buffalo.

James Houck, 14,171 Florida street, Buffalo.

John Houck, 14,171 Florida street, Buffalo.

Questioning brought out the fact that the boys planned to travel from Warren to Pittsburgh where they would use the Lincoln Highway on their way west.

Police of Buffalo were communicated with and it was reported as "missing" by their parents to the police. The Buffalo officers will get in touch with the parents of the lads and their tour will end abruptly without even a sight of the orange trees and movie lots of California.

READING TO FEATURE SERVICE SUNDAY

A feature of the Sunday evening Church of Tomorrow service at the First Presbyterian church will be a reading, "The Healer", by Miss Hulda Angermann. The Junior choir will sing and the orchestra directed by Harry Summers will provide instrumental numbers. Andy McComas will preside, with Terry Thurn offering prayer and Joan Chester reading the Scripture.

Following this service, the session of Everybody's Bible Class, from 8:00 to 8:30, will study Philate.

The sermon subject on Sunday morning will be "An Amazing Beatitude".

DIES AT ASPINWALL

Dr. William Lewis Steen, 68, for 28 years bacteriologist and health director of New Castle, died in the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Aspinwall yesterday after an illness of several months. He went to New Castle from his native home in Venango county at the age of five years. During World War I he was a captain in the Medical Corps.

Pre-Induction Meet Was of Much Interest

Questions and answers flew thick and fast for more than an hour last night at the Pre-Induction social-meeting held for the March selectees in the Y. M. C. A. building. The selectees enjoyed a fine fellowship and received a great deal of practical aid in this third in the series of Pre-Induction affairs sponsored by the "Y" with the cooperation of other Warren organizations.

Dr. Hilding A. Bengt, of the Warren State Hospital staff, delivered the one talk of the evening, in which he told of the many adjustments a man faces as he enters the Service and goes through his basic training, and of ways in which a man can face these adjustments to make the most of them for his own success and happiness.

Following the address, the Y. W. C. A. served a light luncheon which the men very much appreciated, and then under the leadership of General Secretary Ralph Wagner the question-and-answer period was conducted. In this period two men who had recently had experience in the Service—Monty McClure and Richard Hey—were very helpful with their answers. Rev. A. Sennevald assisted in handling the meeting, which he opened with prayer.

The selectees present were:

Warren Beauticians Return From New York

Miss Janet Erickson and Alan Agquist of the Metzger-Wright Charm Shop arrived home this morning from New York where they spent the past week at the International Convention of Hair Stylists. While there Mr. Agquist studied hair styling under Mr. Murray and Mr. Adolph Ella two of the best known hair stylists of this country. He also had the honor of giving a Permanent Wave in front of an audience of Beauticians and at another time did a hair styling from the platform for an audience of hair dressers.

Miss Erickson went to Elizabeth Arden studio and took lessons from Miss Ogilvie of the Ogilvie Sisters in scalp and hair treatment. When asked what the new hair styling was to be, Mr. Agquist said that it was to be definitely up and much shorter. The attendance at this Convention by Mr. Agquist and Miss Erickson assures their patrons of the very latest methods of Beauty Culture and Hair Styling.

Tribute Paid To Men Lost in Sea Training

In the current issue of the Star and Garter, publication of the 112th Regiment, 28th Division, at Camp Gordon, Fla., much space is devoted to the men who lost their lives in the sea-problem when several were drowned. In addition to a list of the men who gave their lives the following relative to a memorial service held was as follows:

"There was no flourish of the bugle...no band playing...no 'Pomp and Circumstance'. Just a simple ceremony, sincere, and full of deep mourning."

"Capt. Hamlin, adjutant of the Regiment read the 'General Order', who lost their lives in last week's in which the names of the 14 men sea-problem were mentioned. Col. Thorson then made a brief speech, revealing his sentiments...but he it known that these men did not die in vain," he said.

"The Reg. Chaplain, Father Madden, then read a passage from the Bible and 'Taps' was sounded."

Forest Fire Service Plans Busy Season

Forester George E. Spinney is laying the groundwork for the spring campaign against forest fires in the Allegheny National Forest. He makes no effort to conceal the fact that the coming season is one fraught with great danger to the forest lands. Fire crews have been badly depleted by the taking of men for the army and by others entertaining defense plants. In their stead he is organizing fire fighting crews with high school students and women. A meeting of the forest fire fighting organization is being held in Tionesta this evening at the Court House. Other meetings will be held in all sectors.

One of the danger spots is along the five mile stretch between Ludlow and Ken where puffing locomotives spew out sparks which cause many fires. A fire line will be burned out along this stretch which will aid in combatting the blazes.

The forest service will still have sabotage and careless folk to contend with. The forest lands are sending more and more timber into the war effort and this fact is recognized by the saboteurs. Efforts were made last year to fire western forests by bombs from planes. The fire setting in this section is expected to be more insidious however with the saboteurs on foot. Fishermen, lease workers and others who use the woods can be of inestimable use in blocking sabotage attempts by reporting any suspicious looking strangers to the nearest state police or forest rangers.

The majority of mental institutions in Great Britain are maintained by public funds.

Cornplanter Post Marks Its Birthday

An important meeting of Chief Cornplanter Post, No. 135, American Legion, will be held in the Legion Home Monday evening, when a class of candidates will be initiated under the direction of District Commander J. Osenider, of Oil City, and membership reports will be presented by the workers.

Local Legionnaires and Auxiliary members joined on Wednesday evening in a very pleasant gathering which marked the 24th anniversary of the organization of the American Legion organization.

Mrs. Larry Krespan was general chairman of arrangements for the event, with Mrs. Gust Geracimos in charge of entertainment and Mrs. Glenn Stone handling dining room arrangements for the tureen supper.

Victor Offerle donated a beautiful centerpiece for the dinner table, which, when sold later in the evening, brought the sum of $15.16, which was given to the Red Cross War Fund.

A group of four young dancers, Barbara Evan, Martha Ann Edwards, Betty Gayle Sealise and Nancy Geracimos, was presented in an entertaining program of dance numbers following dinner.

Later in the evening, McCune's Orchestra provided music for dancing.

Ice will float in water, but not in alcohol.

DANCE AT MERCER USO

Soldiers of the army's Shenango Personnel Replacement depot will be guests Saturday night at the first dance of Mercer's newly-organized USO.

HELD FOR MURDER

William McCausland is awaiting action of the May grand jury in Erie on a charge of murder in the fatal shooting of Leo P. Knoll after a practical joke March 4 in an Erie cafe. McCausland was given a hearing yesterday before Alderman William Heislser.

FEAST OF LOTS

The heroic willingness to fight and die for freedom and justice will be commemorated by Hebrews all over the world when they celebrate Purim, the Feast of Lots, commencing Saturday night, Mar. 20. The festival had its origin in the Biblical story of Esther.

NO ROTARY MONDAY

Rotary Club members will have no regular luncheon-meeting Monday because of the annual Ladies' Night party being held this evening at the Woman's Club. Col. Carlos Romulo, YMCA Lecture Forum speaker, will be honored guest for dinner to be served promptly at six o'clock to about 60 Rotarians and their ladies.

RED CROSS BENEFIT

The Women of the Moose and Knights of Columbus are combining to sponsor a series of games on Monday night in the latter's hall for the benefit of the Red Cross War Fund. The rooms are located over Candyland in Pennsylvania avenue, west, and it is hoped there will be a capacity house when the play begins at eight o'clock.

PITCHER GOES TO WAR

Fred Caljuri, of West Hickory left today with a group of Forest county draftees for a reception center. Caljuri pitched with many of the teams of this section and was given a try-out by Philadelphia Athletics. He was under contract with the Athletics for this season. His moving into the army makes 25 men lost to Connie Mack due to the war.

SIPLE A MAJOR

Paul A. Siple, who as a Boy Scout accompanied Admiral Richard Byrd to the Antarctic, told his parents in Erie yesterday that he had been promoted to major in the U. S. army. He is in the quartermaster department stationed at Washington. Siple appeared in Warren a number of times and has a host of friends here who will be interested to learn of his advancement.

NEW HONOR ROLL

Warren Lodge 109 of the Loyal Order of Moose is arranging for the installation of a new honor roll in the Moose building on Hickory street. The Honor Roll in use at present is now large enough to carry all of the names of the men in service so that a new and larger Honor Roll is being arranged for as there are many members of the Order who expect to be in uniform soon.

GETS REDUCING DIET

One lone intoxicant faced Justice Tracey Greenlund at the City Building this morning and drew a sentence of five days in the borough lock-up where he will be given the reduced diet of bread and water. The lock-up as a resting place is not attracting as many of the village canned heat and perfume imbiber as they do not care for the menu served to the prisoners.

VIADUCT AUTHORIZED

The Public Utility Commission at Harrisburg has authorized construction of a $300,000 timber and steel viaduct to carry Franklin avenue in Erie over the New York Central and the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroads and east 16th street. The 365-foot structure with a 28-foot roadway and five-foot sidewalks will eliminate grade crossings over nine tracks of two railroads as well as one track of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

ATTACKER ARRESTED GIVEN PRISON TERM

Following public outcry that the police do something toward running down the brutal attacker of a woman in an alley at Corry the police arrested a 21 year old youth, Frank Bromley, of Corry RD 1. The youth confessed to the crime and entered a plea of guilty on three counts. It developed after his arrest that he has attacked several young women in Corry during the past few months. Bromley tried to commit suicide by cutting his wrists. Some time ago he also tried to take his life by shooting. Bromley was taken to Erie where Judge Miles E. Kitts sentenced him to three and one-half years in prison.

RED CROSS WILL ACCEPT

In another column of this issue will be found a statement on the progress of the campaign now being waged by the Warren County Chapter for the American Red Cross War Fund as compiled from reports submitted by workers at the meeting held last evening at the Y. W. C. A.

It is apparent that considerable solicitation still remains to be done before the goal of $32,000 will be reached. For this reason it behooves every citizen who has not already contributed to make a liberal pledge as soon as possible.

If you have given to the War Fund of the Red Cross, you may know that you have a part in the war against wars.

All the wars "to end wars" will never do it. As a man soweth, so shall he also reap. War begets war, and nothing else.

It's a pity that necessity forces us to physical resistance when leaders like Hirohito, Mussolini and Schickelgruber gain power. But we do have to risk the lives of our finest young men and women to save the rest of us from such monsters. That fact cannot be denied, must not be lost sight of.

Our soldiers and sailors and airmen and marines deserve our undying gratitude.

They deserve the ministrations of the Red Cross. It doesn't cost a cent to shout "Bravo," "Our Heroes."

And it doesn't cost much to contribute to the Red Cross.

Every person who contributes to the Red Cross will have a part in a glorious campaign—against future wars. If war ever ends, movements like the Red Cross will end them.

Some government press agent is to be commended for the legitimate and effective way in which he has dramatized how important it is for housewives to save fats. Mrs. Mae Hamel of Brooklyn turned in 55 pounds of salvaged drippings—enough to make glycerine for a 2000-pound demolition bomb. So she has been permitted to paint her own message on such a bomb, which will be dropped in Germany.

A rare opportunity to hear a gripping story of the early days of battle in the south Pacific is offered local citizens this evening when Col. Carlos P. Romulo, Filipino aide-de-camp to General Douglas MacArthur, will deliver his famous lecture, "The Last Man Off Bataan," at the Woman's Club under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Lecture Forum.

It'll be two submarines and a half the Women's Auxiliary of the local American Legion post will finance for Uncle Sam, a check-up on the campaign recently concluded reveals. Starting out for a quota of $16,500, the officers in charge report a total of $41,500 subscribed. Bad news for the Axis!

This community had another forcible demonstration Thursday that welding an "empty" steel drum can be just as tragic as firing a gun that "isn't" loaded. The incident also demonstrated that too many motorists still chase fire trucks in spite of gas rationing and rubber shortages.

Another treat is in store for music-lovers of the community this evening when the capella choir will present its annual concert under the direction of Carroll A. Fowler, at the high school auditorium.

LENTEN SERMONETTE

Ralph H. Wagner, General Secretary, Warren Y. M. C. A.

"THE CHRISTIAN, A LEADER"

"I couldn't be a leader." How often have I heard persons make that statement, or one to the same effect? Every Christian is, in a very real sense, a leader, whether he wishes it or not. In fact, most people are, in this same sense, leaders, but Christians are charged with responsibility for leading in a particular direction: toward the Kingdom of God.

Few indeed are there who do not by their word and act definitely influence one or more others. Someone is observing you and what you do, and conscientiously, or unconsciously, imitating you. What you do must be right not only for you, but it must be right and in the right direction for those who follow you. What you do may seem perfectly right in your circumstances and for one possessed of your self-control, but what about the one who looks to you, perhaps unconsciously, for guidance? Is it right for him in his circumstances and with his lack of self-mastery?

"Am I my brother's keeper?" For the Christian the answer cannot be in the negative no matter how much he wishes it so. But why try to dodge it? Why not accept it as an honor and an opportunity?

Stamp News

SOUTH AMERICA continues to provide most of the news in regard to new stamp issues. Now Ecuador follows Venezuela with a flurry of collector's items.

Latest of the Ecuadorian stamps are a set of three issued in honor of the hundredth anniversary of the birth of General Eloy Alfaro (1842-1942). A revolutionary leader, Alfaro was inaugurated executive chief of the republic on Nov. 4, 1895, and in 1897 was proclaimed constitutional president. He was succeeded peacefully in 1901 by General Leonidas Plaza, but figured in another revolution in 1906.

A 10-centavos stamp, vertical, has the general's portrait in black against a red frame. A 20-cent oblong has a view of the Southern Railway, in brown against a black frame, and a 30-cent oblong pictures a military academy in green against gray-brown.

Another new stamp for Ecuador is a scarlet oblong of 20 centavos value, having a view of Guayaquil.

BRITAIN has issued overprints of "M.E.F." and "E.A.F." for use in conquered African territory, chiefly Mussolini's former empire. The M.E.F. overprint, standing for "Middle East Forces," is for use in Abyssinia, Cyrenaica, Eritrea and Somaliland, and appears on 14 regular British values of 1942 issue. A similar set of overprints was issued in 1941. The E.A.F., representing "Eastern Africa Forces," appears on eight

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—The Universal people handed George Wagner, who tinkers with the horrors, a choice assignment. "Here's a really great story for you," they said, beaming with fond memories.

So George got excited too and took a look at an old picture, a history-making movie that had grossed $5,000,000 after its release in 1925—"The Phantom of the Opera," starring the late Lon Chaney with Norman Kerry and Mary Philbin.

"And I found that the 'great story' was really no story at all," said Wagner. "It had never had a story."

Wagner, now rising rapidly as a producer, applied to the no-story theory that has brought him success with various movie horrors, i.e., that movie monsters must be given human personalities and win a certain amount of sympathy for their inevitable tragic fate before audiences will believe in them.

IN THE new color version, the phantom (Claude Rains) will be "explained." He is an embittered musician, his face horribly scarred by acid in a temperamental altercation, who haunts the caverns beneath the Paris opera house with one obsession—to promote his daughter (Susanna Foster) as leading singer. In the old film Chaney haunted those same caverns, a mishapen monster of grotesque eyes, teeth and head, a creature without a past and motivated only by a "crush" on the leading lady. "Here," says Wagner, "we're taking time to sell the central character as a human being."

He and Arthur Lubin, the director, are enthusiastic over the manner in which the new tale is being unfolded, by means of music and dramatic action tightly related, so that even the arias sung by Nelson Eddy and Miss Foster (who is now 18 and a far note from her debut in "The Great Victor Herbert") aid in telling the story. It is, through musical clues, in fact, that Eddy finally traps the phantom.

The "Phantom" includes one sequence of standard opera, "Martha," and two others contrived from Chopin themes and Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony, respectively—arranged by Composer Edward Ward with libretto by Wagner himself.

AFTER 20 years the old "Phantom" stage—built for $500,000 to the late Carl Laemmle's dismay—is again the Paris opera house. The stage has become an institution in Hollywood, serving the "U" for countless films and bringing in substantial revenue from rentals to other studios needing a theater set—or a swimming pool, for that matter, for the stage was later modernized, soundproofed and equipped for a tank beneath its flooring.

Producer Wagner says that Nelson Eddy, with new dark hair and black moustache, is emerging as a vital personality—"for the first time he doesn't seem to fade into M-G-M's wallpaper"—and he also has hosannas for Susanna. The two scenes most fans remember from the Chaney version—the girl's unmasking of the Phantom and the crash of the heavy chandelier—will be retained.

As for Wagner himself, before launching into his horror career he once planned to join the army service on the border in 1916. After the war he gravitated to pictures, played extra, wrote musical lyrics ("Mary Lou") and later, under the name of Joseph West, wrote western movies.

"Man-Made Monster" grossed $500,000 on a cost of $100,000, his groove was set. The "Phantom," budgeted for nearly $2,000,000, is the ultimate in this line.

DAR Is Interested In 100th Anniversary Of Real "Daughters"

Members of General Joseph Warren Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are much interested in word from Williamsport concerning Mrs. Anna Knight Gregory, who will celebrate her 100th birthday anniversary in that city on March 23 and is the only living woman whose father fought in the Revolutionary War.

Richard Knight, her father, entered the war as a drummer boy at the age of 11 and was also a soldier in the War of 1812. Mrs. Gregory, born in Liverpool, Pa., when he was 75 years old, was his youngest child by a second marriage.

Her married life of 45 years was spent in Selinsgrove but since the death of her husband, she has resided with a son in Williamsport. This real Daughter of the Revolution is very active for one of her years, does needlepoint, knitting and sewing and on her coming birthday will broadcast over the Williamsport station.

National and state officers of the D. A. R. will honor her that day. Mrs. William Stark Tompkins, state regent, will present her with a silver vase holding 100 roses, and a grandchild of the famous Washington Elm will be planted in Williamsport in her honor. In addition, a step in the Washington Memorial Tower at Valley Forge will bear her name.

Scene From Final Play

The handsome prince gives Beauty a magic wishing ring in this scene from "Beauty and the Beast" with which the Community Council PTA closes its Clare Tree Major play season on Monday afternoon in the high school auditorium.

Holding its quarterly session in its PTA Council made final plans for the YWCA activities building for presenting "Beauty and the Beast" on Monday and decided to continue the plays project for another season.

A gift was voted to the Red Cross War Fund and the following were named as a nominating committee for reporting at the June meeting: Mrs. Guy McCloskey, Mrs. Earl Christensen and Mrs. Regis Geitner.

Floyd W. Bathurst, high school principal, talked to the members on changes in the school curriculum brought about by war needs.

To conclude, tea was served by the A. Bessie Johnson unit, with Mrs. John Harrington and Mrs. Harold Stohl in charge and the council president, Mrs. S. E. Saylor, presiding at the attractively decorated table.

There is particular local interest in Monday's play, since Richard Rapp, of Warren, is a member of the cast. He has been with the Clare Tree Major company all this year and comes to Warren following nearly a full season's experience. He will be seen as Donchian, the dancing master.

It is stated by council officials that there are some single admissions available, principally because of the ban on pleasure driving which has cut down rural attendance, and that these may be had from Mrs. F. A. Schuler, Roy street, or at the door Monday afternoon.

Four o'clock will be curtain time for "Beauty and the Beast," long a childhood favorite and one that brings a competent cast of adult professional actors to portray the story of the rich merchant and his three daughters.

Farmington Couple Have Anniversary

Lander, March 18—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burgett, of the Thompson Hill vicinity, were honored Thursday on the event of their golden wedding anniversary. A six o'clock family dinner was a feature and in the evening an informal gathering was held to receive friends and relatives.

Refreshments were served and the couple were presented with many good wishes, gifts and a sum of money.

Herman Burgett, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Burgett, and Stella Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Porter, were wed on March 18, 1893. Both have been lifelong residents of Farmington township and 40 years of their married life have been spent on the farm where they now reside.

They have three children, Lee, of Meadville; Lynn, who resides on the farm, and Mrs. Charles Russo, of Warren. All were present yesterday but Lee, who visited them last Sunday. Also with them for the occasion were their two grandchildren.

WBA Committees Planning Convention

Review No. 4, Woman's Benefit Association, is holding a committee meeting at one o'clock this afternoon at the YWCA activities building to discuss plans for holding its district convention here in June.

There was a large attendance last evening for the dinner in the S. F. of A. Hall, when special guests were Mrs. Mary T. Hardwick, of Pittsburgh, state field director; Mrs. Ruth Putnam, managing deputy from Erie; Mrs. Leota Minich, deputy from Clarion; Mrs. Christie Lundmark, president of Akeley Review No. 238. There were also a number of other guests from Russell and Akeley.

Mrs. Hardwick gave a fine talk on plans for the local convention; also on membership, urging each member to secure a new member for conventional initiation.

Thank you cards were read from a number of men in service, expressing appreciation for gifts of home baked goods sent to them by the review.

CULBERTSON-HEATH MARRIAGE IN SOUTH

Lt. Sidney A. Culbertson, of Clarendon, son of Mrs. John Rowley, of North East and formerly of Clarendon, and Margaret Heath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Heath, of Monroe, N. C., were united in marriage in the Methodist church of that place on March 12.

After a reception, the couple left for Camp Flora, Jackson, Miss., where Lt. Culbertson is an instructor in an officers' school. Before entering the army he was employed here by the New Process Company. The bride has been employed as a secretary to a colonel at Camp Sutton.

HOLDING TRYOUTS FOR ORIGINAL PLAYS

Tryouts will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Woman's Club for casting of this year's Warren Players' competition winners. Miss Margaret Elliott will coach Helen Israel's winner, "Harvest," and Lester Muthert will direct his own runner-up, "For Freedom." About ten men and women are needed for the two casts and all players are urged to try-out.

Clarendon Ceremony United in Marriage Couple from Sheffield

Miss Marian Patricia O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Connor, 201 Church street, Sheffield, and Harold Thomas Sanford, also of that place, were united in marriage at ten o'clock Thursday morning in St. Clara's rectory at Clarendon. Father M. J. Macken performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by Miss Betty Mae Finerty, of Sheffield. She was attired in a powder blue suit with gray squirrel trim, and wore dark accessories and a corsage of rose and blue flowers. Miss Finerty wore a suit of beige with red fox trim, dark accessories and a Talisman rose corsage. The bride's mother wore gold flowers with a blue suit and navy accessories.

Joseph O'Connor, Jr., brother of the bride, was Mr. Sanford's best man. A wedding breakfast for the bridal party followed at the Hotel Carver and the couple left for a wedding trip to Philadelphia and New York.

Miss Sanford, graduated from Sheffield High School in 1941, is an accomplished violinist and was concert master of the high school orchestra. She is secretary of the O'Connor Machine Company in Sheffield.

Mr. Sanford, who was graduated from the high school at Ellwood, Ind., in 1940, has been employed as shop foreman in the navy department of the Sheffield firm. He will leave next Monday for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps.

COMMANDERY AUXILIARY

A tureen dinner will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Warren Commandery No. 63, Knights Templar, at Masonic Temple Monday evening, beginning promptly at 6:30 o'clock. It is stated dessert will be provided by the committee and all are urged to be present.

HERE are spring blossoms that won't fade—real old-fashioned flower-and-lace nosegays used as the motif of the very novel print pictured above. The nosegay print is used in all-over design on the skirt and one unit of it displayed with dramatic effect on the long black crepe overblouse.

Social Events

ALL INVITED TO CHOIR CONCERT

All interested friends are invited by the high school a cappella choir and its director, Carroll A. Fowler, to attend the sixth annual concert to be presented at 8:15 this evening in the high school auditorium. Besides the solos and choral numbers, the program will include a Gaul cantata and a group of selections by the high school orchestra under the direction of Harry Summers.

John Swick is serving very capably as ticket manager for the event and has as his aides the following ticket committee chairman: Donna Allen, Joseph Guiffre, Edward Peterson, Laverne Peterson, Mary Sigworth, Grace Young and Malcolm Young. Members of the Girls' Glee Club will handle ticket sales at the door tonight and act as ushers.

DRAMATIC SECTION

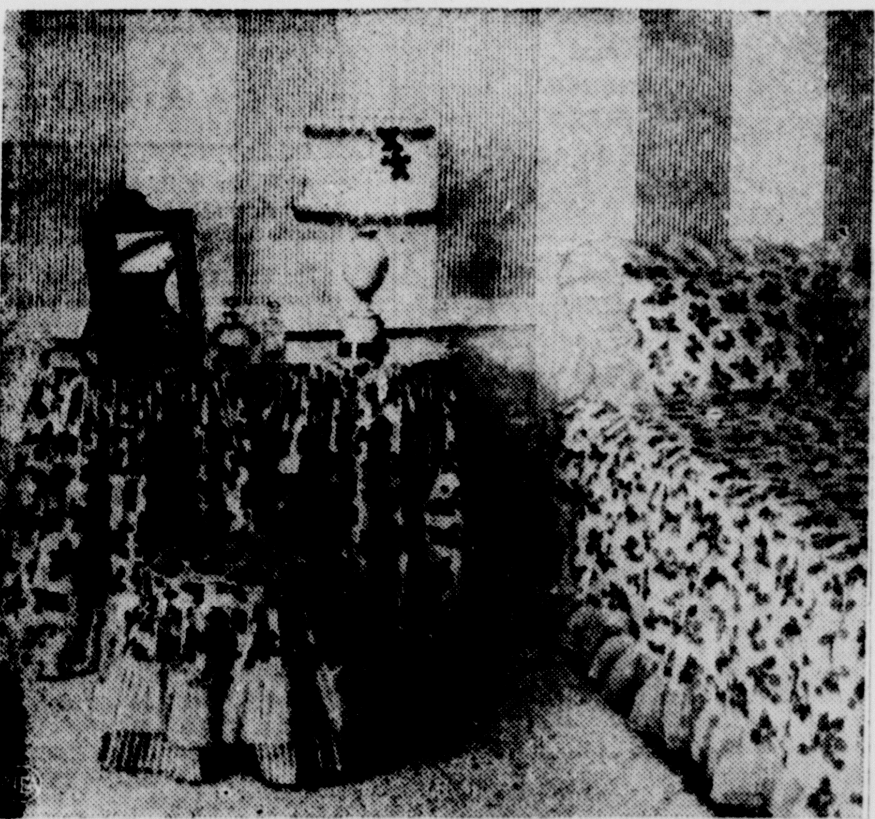

The final meeting of the Dramatic Section will be held at the Woman's Club at 2:30 Monday afternoon, with tea following a program in charge of Mrs. H. W. Conarro.

MOTHERS' CLUB

Pre-school Mothers' Club members will be entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. David Crossett, 306 Conewango avenue, with Miss Arlene Schure as guest speaker.

Cherry Smash

(From Lord & Taylor, New York)

THIS charming boudoir ensemble is made of muslin in a bright, all-over printed design of cherries. Bedsheet and dressing table skirts are edged with frilly white organdy ruffles, while the seat has a double skirt, the under one being of red and white striped chintz. This picks up the bands of the red and white wallpaper, which ends at ceiling line with a scalloped frieze bearing a stenciled cherry motif—an interesting way of tying the muslin print in with the paper.

Pressing Helps Keep Clothes Looking Good

"I will take good care of the clothing I have". That's what every person should aim to do during wartime, believes Mrs. Frensdorff, home economics extension representative, Warren county. Good care of clothing includes keeping it mended, clean, and well pressed. Pressing can do a great deal to lift up baggy knees in men's trousers and take out the extra fullness in a woman's skirt or coat that comes from hours of sitting. Generally these garments are made of wool and that makes them easy to press at home. When wool is softened by heat and moisture, it can be shrunk, or slightly stretched, or molded into shape by pressing.

Here are a few general tips for pressing wool garments: Whenever possible press on the wrong side.

Use two pressing clothes—one of wool, the other of muslin or heavy cotton. Put the wool cloth on the garment, over this lay the damp cotton cloth.

Pass the iron lightly over the wet cloth, following the grain of the wool cloth distributes the moisture the material but do not iron it heavily, pressing is not ironing. While the steam is still rising, lift the cloth. Pat the garment with the hands, or a folded newspaper, or a spanking—a thin wood board the shape of a butter paddle. Hold the iron over thick places, such as pockets, so the moisture penetrates the fabric.

Stop pressing before all the moisture has left the fabric. Pressing until perfectly dry may make the material shiny.

Let the garment dry thoroughly before hanging in the closet or wearing it. Slightly damp garments wrinkle easily if worn just after pressing.

Always use a wool pressing cloth with a damp cotton cloth on top for garments which must be pressed on the right side. The wool cloth distributes the moisture evenly on the garment. While wool scorches easily although the pressing cloth may show no scorch. Very heavy woollens require more steam to penetrate them and more pressure in pressing.

Here's Data for Planning All-Summer Harvest of Short-season Vegetables

Plan All-Summer Harvest of These Short Season Vegetables

In Column 1 is given the time during which the harvest from one sowing remains in top condition. In Column 2, the space in the garden row required to serve a family of four one meal. These figures are approximate, since gardening cannot be a precision job; but use them as a guide with broad tolerances, and they will help you avoid serious waste, and scarcity as well.

Crop	Column 1	Column 2
Beans, snap	4 weeks	1 foot
Beets	6 weeks	1 foot
Carrots	8 weeks	2 feet
Cucumbers	4 weeks	1 foot
Endive	6 weeks	1 foot
Lettuce	6 weeks	1 foot
Kohlrabi	3 weeks	2 feet
Turnips	2 weeks	1 1/2 feet
Spinach	2 weeks	3 feet
Sweet Corn	10 days	4 feet
Onion Sets	4 weeks	1 foot
Peas	2 weeks	3 feet
Radish, early	1 week	1 foot
Radish, summer	2 weeks	1 foot
Radish, winter	6 weeks	1 foot

How can this amount be figured? The accompanying table lists these short-season crops. Column 2 gives the space in a garden row required to produce sufficient to make one serving to a family of four; column 1, the time which the harvest from one sowing will last.

To determine the longest row of one vegetable to sow at a time, estimate the number of times your family will eat it during the period of harvest given in column 1. Multiply this by the number of feet in the garden row required for one serving, as given in column 2.

Take for example, beets. The period of harvest from one sowing is six weeks. How often will you serve beets in that period? Remember, three vegetable dishes a day should be the minimum next summer, which means 21 family servings a week. Three servings a week, then, will be almost the minimum for any vegetable. At this rate, in six weeks you will need 18 servings of beets. Multiply 18 by one foot, the space in the row needed for one family serving, and you have eighteen, the maximum row that you should sow at one time. To allow for guests, and possible mishaps which may reduce your crop, sow twenty feet. And make two or three sowings, spaced about like this: Seven weeks between the first and second, five weeks between the second and third, because the second sowing will grow faster than the first and the third slower.

Go right through the list of the short-season vegetables with this kind of calculation. Never sow at one time more than the amount you can use while the crop is at its best. Space your succession sowings far enough apart so that two harvests will not overlap too much, giving you a wasteful surplus, followed by scarcity. An hour or two spent in figuring this out may save you days of misdirected labor in growing crops you cannot use when they mature.

Remember in using the table, that gardening is not a precision operation. Do not try to cut the corners too closely. If your soil is not rich, give a little more space than the tables call for, and make liberal allowances for extra food for friends and guests. Note also that food for putting up to use next winter must be figured in addition to the summer's supply for the family table.

Youngsville Legion Marks Anniversary

Youngsville, March 19—A large attendance of Legionnaires, members of the Ladies Auxiliary and guests were present Wednesday evening March 17 when the Youngsville American Legion celebrated the birthday of the founding of the order with a fine dinner served at 6:30 p. m. in the American Legion rooms.

Singing about the table of patriotic and popular songs was lead by Mrs. Roy Crandall with Miss Hendrickson, accompanist. Commander Warren Jones introduced District Commander of the American Legion and Mrs. Osenider of Oil City and District Service Officer Heinaman and Mrs. Heinaman of Franklin.

Commander Warren Jones of the Youngsville Legion Post introduced members of the local organization including several new members among them, two men now home after a period of active duty in the present armed forces, namely Ray Fales and Nat Norman. He also introduced past commander of the Youngsville Post, adjutant, finance officers and the present local service officer of the Youngsville Post.

Two good talks were given by visiting officials. District Commander Osenider spoke of the work of the American Legion in many phases of war conditions and he urged efforts in the Observation Post.

Local Commander Jones also spoke on this subject calling for volunteers of both men and women for the four hour shifts now operating in the local observation post. He mentioned the pictures and explanation of the work to be given in Youngsville on March 24. Mr. Heinaman spoke on the theme, "Rehabilitation in the present war beginning now." He emphasized the need of watchful care for families of men now away in service and the present need of hospitalization of men brought back from the front because of wounds or other illness.

WILL SHOW PICTURE
At 2:30 p. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday March 25, the public is invited to see the moving picture "The First Fighting Command" to be shown in the high school auditorium.

This picture shows the need and work of the Observation Post. As there is need of more volunteers

FUNNY BUSINESS

"Frankly, I think we're calling on a non-essential firm!"

In Youngsville for this work it is hoped that many will see this most instructive and interesting picture. Explanations and talks will be given by Lieut. Sorenson and Cpl. Kelley of Buffalo.

Look! Listen! Live

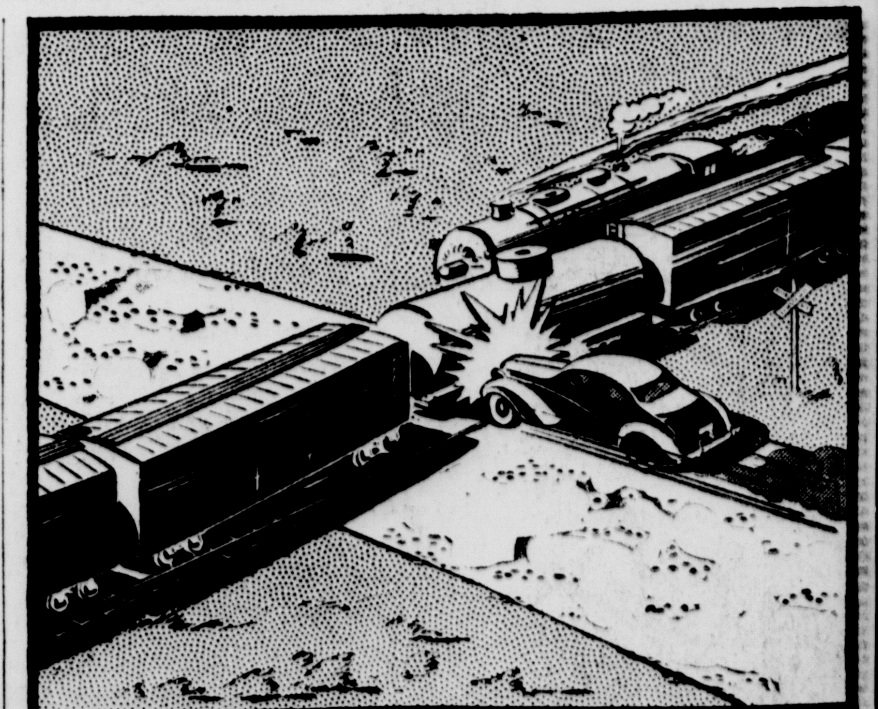

A driver with alcohol in his system doesn't have much system about the way he does things.

In the grade crossing accident illustrated here, three young men had alcohol in their systems and the three men and their systems, including the alcohol, were in a car, one of them as the driver.

At 3:20 a. m. the driver steered headon into a freight train at a grade crossing. The impact derailed an oil car and threw it into the path of a speeding passenger train coming from the opposite direction. The passenger engine was derailed, and jack-knifed the baggage car, turning over a coach and derailling five additional cars. Forty persons were injured, the three young men were killed and traffic on the mainline—a vital war goods artery—was tied up for several hours.

Alcohol and gasoline don't mix—nor does a car mix well with a speeding train. But 34 per cent of the grade crossing accidents are due to cars running into the side of trains, and three-fourths of these occur at night.

The National Safety Council is conducting a special campaign to stop these accidents which every day delay 38 trains a total of 22 hours—a serious drain on the nation's war transportation effort. Driver carelessness is the cause of almost all grade crossing accidents, according to the Council. To help win the war—to save yourself and others needless suffering—the Council asks you to be sure the track is clear before you start across.

Legion Auxiliary Bond Sale Doubles Quota Given County

Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, president of the Warren American Legion Auxiliary and recently appointed county chairman of war activities for that organization, announces today that with the close on March 15 of the "Sponsor a Submarine" War Bond campaign, this county's total stands at the amazing sum of $41,500.

The local unit's achievement seems the more remarkable in view of the fact that its own quota of $16,500 was oversubscribed in the first six days of the sales drive and the time limit was extended to March 15 only because the Pennsylvania Auxiliary's goal had not been reached in the period first specified.

Names of all purchasers in Warren county will be sent to the state chairman of war activities and will be inscribed on the sponsors' honor roll when the new fighting ship takes to her duties.

In behalf of her membership, Mrs. Munksgard wishes to make public acknowledgement of the splendid support given the Auxiliary's War Bond campaign, with special thanks to those who made purchases, employees of the post office and local banks who assisted in the sales, to Donald C. Smith, county War Bond chairman and to the Times-Mirror for publicity given the project.

Much Enthusiasm Is Exhibited at Report Gathering

(From Page One)

Warren, Gerald Rickerson, chairman, $137.40; Pleasant township, Misses Betty and Marguerite Scheerer, co-chairmen, $24.25; Russell, Mrs. L. E. Russell, chairman, $196.80; Sheffield, Mrs. E. C. Curnutt, chairman, $107.60; Spring Creek, Mrs. Raymond Sickler, chairman, $83.00; Sugar Grove, Mrs. F. A. Schoonover, chairman, $200.00; Tiona and Weldbank, Mrs. Hans Link, chairman, $70.00.

At the close of the campaign a summary will be published of the accomplishments of each of the teams.

After the reports had been tabulated on the big blackboard, Chairman E. W. Knapp called upon C. J. Cray, chairman of the Warren County Chapter, who expressed his gratification of the results secured thus far and said that he was very confident that Warren county's quota would be exceeded by a comfortable margin.

Lt. Commander William M. Cashman followed with a brief but very interesting report of the wide range of his service since entering the armed forces.

Miss Helen Lauffenburger of the Warren County Chapter was then called upon and gave a more or less detailed account of the work being done by the Chapter.

Compromise in Tax Plan Being Sought

hart (R-Calif.) said he believed there would be "very substantial" opposition among GOP representatives to any plan which completely forgives a year's taxes, and that many Republicans wanted to "prevent the creation of any war-made millionaires."

Both the committee and Ruml plan bills would impose a 20 percent withholding tax against the taxable portions of wages and salaries.

DROWNS IN SHENANGO

Sharon, March 19.—(P)—Coroner P. E. Biggins said he would conduct an investigation into the death of Mrs. Artie Sloan, 58, of Sharpsville, whose body was recovered yesterday from the Shenango river a block from the center of the business district. Samuel Sloan, son of the victim, expressed belief she might have met with foul play. She disappeared January 25.

Word has been received that William J. Welsh, Jr., has been promoted to Private First Class. He is stationed at Camp Gordon Johnston, Florida.

Heath Ferrie, Jr., has arrived home from Tarrant Field, Texas, to spend a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Ferrie, Conewango avenue extension.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Punskey, Linwood street, have had word that their son, Harry J., has been promoted from Staff Sgt. to Technical Sgt. at Albuquerque, New Mexico.

William M. Cashman, lieutenant senior grade in the U. S. Navy, who is home on 10-day furlough after three months in the South Atlantic, is being transferred and will report at the Norfolk Naval Hospital.

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, March 16—Rodney Barlow who enlisted in the Merchant Marine, in January, 1942, arrived Saturday night to spend two weeks with his father Wesley Barlow and family. He had arrived in New York, March 2, after spending ten months on a trip which took him to many ports and in which the boat struck on a rock on a small island, about forty miles from its destination and the crew were taken off by other boats before it sank. He had spent some time in Nurnansk, Russia and reports the Russian people very hospitable to the Americans. The crew has been widely scattered among various boats and have not all returned as yet to this country. Needless to say Mr. Barlow had not heard from his son for many months until he arrived in New York and phoned home. He will report for duty after his furlough.

The World Day of Prayer Service using the program, "Father, I Pray that they may all be one," was held in the Presbyterian church, Friday afternoon with the Mission, Free Methodist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches taking part. Mrs. Carl Norbeck,

CHURCH NOTES

Rev. Carl A. Moberg, of Ash-tabula, O., will be guest at St. Paul's Lutheran church Sunday, preaching at both the 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. worship services. The evening service will be in the Swedish language.

Announcement is made the Ladies Aid Society of Sharon Lutheran church, Youngsville, will meet at 2:30 p. m. on Thursday.

Rev. Clyde Herndon, missionary to China recently returned to this country, is expected to be at the Pentecostal church, Crescent and Madison avenues, on Sunday evening. Rev. Herndon was held prisoner in a Japanese concentration camp for six months and should have an interesting story to tell. He can be here for only a short time and the service, to which the public is cordially invited, will begin promptly at 6:15 o'clock.

At 7:30 p. m. Sunday in the Clarendon Methodist church, Miss Mathilda Steinhoff, high school faculty member, will tell of her travels in Mexico.

Regular YMCA Basketball Season Closes Saturday

Blomquists Battle For Superiority With Irish In 8:30 Contest At "Y"

Tomorrow night finds the highly successful "Y" league coming to a close for the Saturday night battles and a last-minute try at the seemingly invincible Blomquist-Furniture superiority in the league, will be undertaken by the Sheffield O'Connors.

The O'Connors must come through tomorrow night to tie the Blomquist and are out to hit the groove they've been used to when they tangle for perhaps the final time this year.

The Irish of Sheffield have won the coveted "Y" title for the past two years and a third year of triumph brings the cup into their hands for keeps, while the Blomquists are in there for the first time after the gonfalon.

The climax to 1943's booming "Y" season is this last tilt and it has been set for 8:30 p. m. with a capacity crowd expected to witness it.

The third place team will be decided in the first tilt when the suddenly inspired Struthers-Wells outfit lines up against the slipping Rock Cleaners and with the new additions just added to the local E's, should turn into a fitting anti-climax to keep out of the cellar of the league. Joe Waples is set to referee the games and the second contest gets into session at 8:30.

Good Season For Suckers Officials Say

Harrisburg, March 19.—(P)—Suckers—the kind with fins—are being hooked in record numbers this year in Pennsylvania.

"Reports from every part of the state indicate sucker fishing is very good," Fish Commissioner Charles A. French declared today. "They are running unusually large and many of the anglers say they are getting daily their limit."

The commissioner explained there is no official season for suckers but the unofficial season for "dyed-in-the-wool fishermen" is from January to the start of trout season on April 15.

"As soon as the ice moves off the streams sucker fishermen start lining the banks," French said in an interview. "The sucker puts up a good fight at first, but isn't as tenacious as bass. They give up quickly."

Cold weather, he added has made them "unusually good eating."

For bait, French advises worms.

M'DEVIOT OPPOSED TO CHANGING TITLE

Philadelphia, March 19.—(P)—Judge Harry S. McDevitt describes as "absurd" a suggestion by Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, new executive director of the State Council of Defense, that the council's name be changed to something more expressive of the war spirit.

"The public is certainly not apathetic," McDevitt commented. "And if they were, changing the name of the council certainly wouldn't change the feeling in their hearts."

A survey of rejected draftees indicates the highest incidence of bad teeth occurs in New England.

Approximately seven draftees out of every 100 are rejected because of mental ill-health.

THE SPIRIT OF THE CARDINALS—Stats Marion backs up Whitey Kurovski back of third base at Yankee Stadium as latter catches foul from bat of Joe Gordon in ninth inning of 2-0 victory in third game of World Series last fall.

Spikes On Bikes

Walking is good for the legs, but so is bicycle riding, and New York Giants turn to the more pleasant method in getting from hotel to field at Lakewood, N. J. In front, left to right, are Gus Mancuso, Dick Bartell and Tom Smekel. Rear, Babe Barna and Carl Hubbell.

Willie Pep and Sammy Angott Fight For Piece of Title At Garden Tonight --- They Think

New York, Mar. 19.—(P)—Wee Willie Pep and Swarthy Sammy Angott collide in Madison Square Garden tonight in a ten rounder that's billed as a non-title lightweight tussle—but no one believes that part of it.

As a matter of fact, some of the better 49th street betting shoppes have quoted odds that the winner of this shindig in which both fighters must come in under the 135-pound limit will lay claim immediately to at least a portion of the world lightweight title. And get some recognition for it.

This, of course, would be a separate portion from the piece owned by Beau (The Jumping) Jack, who received the New York State athletic commission's blessing after Angott "abdicated" the crown last fall. The National Boxing Association has left the title open.

Tonight's outing is Sammy's first since he decided to come back with "miraculously" cured hands. The crouching, crowding, mauling style of the squat little Pennsylvania Italian figures to produce the toughest hurdle for the all-time record 62 straight winning string Wee Willie has put together in his unbeaten career.

The betting boys don't feel this way about it, but it has been proved in the past that the way the betting boys feel has as much to do with a fight as the price of sand

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

By the Associated Press

Munice, Ind.—Outfielder Maurice Van Robays sent word today that he expects to come here next week to join the Pittsburgh Pirates squad, which holds its second drill today. He has been working in a war plant in Detroit and said he had just decided definitely to stay in baseball.

Hershey, Pa.—The Giants, Pirates and Braves are interested in Bobby Bragan, who doubled at shortstop and catcher for the Phils last year. However, Manager Bucky Harris said the Phils will make no further trades until Commissioner Landis has ruled on the Nick Etten case.

The 3-G Oil Co. maintained their lead as they trimmed the Valones three points with Dr. S. Giunta pounding out 200-566 to hold them in first place by one point over the Keystone who were trimming the Crosstets four points. The Allen's 236 and Fazio's 546 led the losing Valones as Rapp's 216-570 topped the scoring for the winning Keystone. Oscar's on Leslie Decker's 264-591, a new league record, stepped up the ladder in the standings as they trimmed the Bradford Penn four points. Olson-Ejers with Inter leading the way took three points from the Times-Square. Decker's 284 topped the league in scoring with Jack Allen turning in a 256 game.

ELKS LEAGUE SCHEDULE

High scores for Fitch and Decker led the DeLuxe Metal team to a four-point win over the Times-Mirror in the Elk league last evening while Turners were applying a coat of kalsomein to the Harvey-Carey outfit. In the match on alleys 1-2 Decker's 236 single and 621 total were high, while Lowrey took honors for the publishers with a high single of 155 and total of 503. In the other match Klesbauer rolled a 524 for high total for Turners and his 190 was high single. For the drug-gists J. Koepf had high single with 190 while Goldman was talking high total 486. Other honor roll scores were: Fitch 225, Eggleston 201. The team totals:

DeLuxe	922	805	964-2751
Times-Mirror	768	753	743-2264
Harvey-Carey	800	780	802-2381

STUDENTS AT W. AND J. GO WILD AT NEWS

Washington, Pa., March 19.—(P)—Jubilant students at Washington and Jefferson College today arranged a Sunday reception for their team which scored an upset 43-42 victory over Creighton in the New York metropolitan basketball tournament opener last night.

They began a celebration when the final score was heard and promised an even greater one for the players who are coming back to face Toledo in the semi-finals.

Coach Adam Sanders is taking the squad to Madison Square Garden again tonight—but only as spectators. They'll be there to root for a home town boxer—Sammy Angott.

Angott, former world's lightweight champ, fights Willie Pep, recognized as featherweight champion in New York state, in a non-title bout. He is a personal friend of all the W. & J. players and rooter at most of the prexy home games, Sanders said.

W. & J., once one of the mighty among the nation's sports teams, for many years now has operated under a strict athletic deflation policy. Its athletic director is Wilbur (Fats) Henry, former All-America tackle at Wash-Jeff.

YMCA League Basketball To Finish Season With Games Of Elimination All Week

To finish up the league and the playoffs at the "Y" in both leagues, it has been decided to end the Monday night league and have the winners play-off for championship of both leagues next week.

This will be done by an elimination series between all second place teams which include O'Connors, Rock Cleaners, Butter-Krutz and Struthers-Wells. The winner to take on the Blomquists on Saturday of next week.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 19.—(P)—Greg Rice, who has no equal at picking 'em up and laying 'em down in track meets, puts a lot of store by the mental aspects of foot racing.

He doesn't know how well he can do at a mile and therefore wouldn't feel so sure of himself as he does at two miles... and when he's shooting for a record, as he likely will be in tomorrow's Chicago relay, he doesn't "really try" until he sees how the first half mile goes... the slow first quarter, he says, ruined last week's bid for a new two-mile mark, but he may set his sights on an 8:50 record tomorrow... It was on the Chicago track that Greg set the current two-mile, record, incidentally working in a 4:16 miles as he did it.

New Game—The most popular game among the New York Giants down at Lakewood, N. J., where they're supposedly training for the baseball season, is table tennis... But since there are only two paddles at Brannick Arms, they've had to invent a new kind of doubles in which each team uses one paddle, passing it back and forth between two players... to make it more confusing, Manager Mel Ott, a southpaw hitter, and Cliff Melton, a left-hand pitcher, both play right-handed.

Shorts and Shells—Elmer Layden, the pro football boss, has just received a letter from one of his old quartermasters at Columbia (Ind.) College, Capt. A. Entringer of the Medical Corps in New Guinea, asking if there's any truth to that rumor floating around the South Pacific that the Redskins beat the Bears... If National League baseball games are called for any reason but the weather—Sunday curfew, catching trains, etc.—this year, they'll be regarded as "suspended" games and must be completed when the teams get together again... Prexy Ford Frick figures a lot of games will be halted because of train connections... Emerson Woodward, who already has more race horses than he can watch, found 18 new foals awaiting "Valdina" names the last time he visited his Texas farm.

Today Guest Star—James E. Doyle, Cleveland Plain Dealer: "None of Cleveland's Indians has been in action yet on any war front, but their infield is half shot, even so."

Chapter 14

"YOU don't mind, do you, Jim?"

Jim, aware of Don's and O'Shanessy's quick resentment at Landa's announcement, was irritated. This was the second time she had deliberately used him and his boat as a refuge from her fiancé, and he was being engulfed in her dark eyes.

"Come along if you want," he invited casually.

Don's gaze at Landa was one of helpless misery. Jim felt sorry for the man. "Why don't you come along too?" he asked.

For a moment, Don brightened, but quickly relapsed into dull inertia. "Sorry. Too busy today."

Out on the sun-warmed decks of the Sea Bat, the crew greeted Landa with friendly shouts. Even Jim's usual chafing at any delay in the work was forgotten today. While two of the crew took the broken piston ashore to be welded, he and Cass Wilson helped Landa into one of the diving suits. Cass Wilson donned the other and, carrying the paint-treated board, rascal and crayons, was lowered into the water beside the boat.

Landa had a moment of fright standing on deck in the heavy diving suit. As Jim lifted the helmet over her head, she took a last glance down at her clanking boots, the bronze breastplate like medieval armor across the canvas. Her eyes lifted to Jim's face in a flash of terror.

He grinned. "You don't have to go if you're scared."

His amusement reassured her. She smiled. "Who says I'm scared? Put down that helmet!"

AND then she was over the boat's side, drifting down through a blue-green void, with fat, stale air to breathe and the faint tunk-tunk sound of the compressor motor in her ears. Blue grey fish, speckled, striped, fat, flat drifted past her face plate. And as she felt the bottom of the strait beneath her feet dark rocks and towering kelp jutted from patches of white sandy ocean floor, that rippled across with greenish light and deep shadows. It was another world.

Cass Wilson, a weird, cumbersome giant in his diving suit, approached her carefully so as not to entangle their air lines, and set up her easel. Fascinated and absorbed, she began to work, struggling to capture on the board the enchantment of this underworld kingdom, the eerie beauty of its strange colorings.

When Jim told her through the phone she'd been down long enough, she waited. "Just a few minutes," he really got something.

Once up on the deck of the Sea Bat, again, she climbed out of her diving suit to hang over the boat's edge impatiently while Cass Wilson brought up the board easel. "Those colors down there!" she cried to Jim. "And coloring always was my strong point in painting."

She reached for the board as Jim and Fuzzy helped Cass onto the deck—took one horrified look at it. It was a scene to shudder at. The silvery-green light and shadows of the drawing were now clashing reds, purples, yellows. "I can see," drawled Jim. "That color's your strong point." But he patted her shoulder consolingly as her face clouded with disappointment. "Never mind. I can also see

LUDLOW

The World Day of Prayer, sponsored by the United Council of Church Women, was observed in the Ludlow Moriah Lutheran church on the first Friday of Lent, on March 12th, at 8 p. m. The theme for the services which were led by Rev. Carl Gronquist, was "Father, I pray that they may all be one." The service was divided into six parts, namely: 1-"Out of the Depths", 2-"Glory be to Thee", 3-"O Lord, Forgive", 4-"Love Never Fails", 5-"We Offer Unto Thee", 6-"The Lord Reigneth." The readers for the evening were: Enoch Nelson, Gustav Olson, Carl Swanson and Mabel Peterson. Prayers were offered by C. W. Swanson, Mrs. Enoch Nelson, Rose Anderson, Tillie Olson, Mrs. Leroy Johnson and Mrs. Lawrence Dippert. The offering was received and the closing hymn "St. Clement" was sung by the choir and congregation.

Lenten services will be held in the Moriah Lutheran church Wednesday evening at 7:30, after which Lutheran Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Julius Swanson.

The pupils of Miss Josephine Benson held a piano recital in the Lutheran church at Sheffield on Friday evening. The following pupils from Ludlow participated: Joanna Johnson, Virgil Nelson, Paul Johnson, Allene Johnson, Anneli, Mary Anna Connolly, Susan Anderson, Catherine Swanson and Margaret Swanson. The following parents attended the recital: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson, Mrs. Bernal Connolly, Mrs. John G. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson and son of Erie were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Johnson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanson and Mrs. Josephine Johnson visited Sheffield on Friday evening to pay their respects to the memory of Aaron Magnusson, who died suddenly Wednesday of a heart attack.

It has been estimated that 15 million tons of feed will be needed this year to make U. S. chickens lay their quota of 5 billion dozen eggs.

SUGAR GROVE

Sugar Grove, March 18 - The Reading Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Dorn with Miss Margaret Fay presenting the first of two programs on Macbeth. At the business meeting at which Mrs. Allan Frank presided the club voted a gift to the Red Cross. Mrs. Rachel Jones and Miss Maybelle Meyers will be hostesses to the next meeting on April 6th.

Mrs. Burt Schoonover entertained the N. B. Club Wednesday evening. Two tables of bridge were played with prizes going to Mrs. John Stuart and Mrs. Gerald Miller. The club voted to pay $5 to the Red Cross. Mrs. F. A. Schoonover and Mrs. Frank Dorn were guests. The hostess served dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Earl Clark entertained the Embroidery Club Wednesday afternoon.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tuley were their son, Homer Tuley, petty officer third class, training at Davisville, R. I., and their daughter, Miss Eugenia Tuley, home economics teacher at Brownsville.

Little Ardath Haven, of Ashville, has been spending several days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorn.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Abbott are in Canton, O., where they will attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Barbara Herspool to Alvah C. Kopatz.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Manroos have moved into the home they recently purchased from Fred Milsapaw. The latter has moved into the home of Mrs. Frank Wiggins on Main street.

OBITUARY

WHITNEY DALLAS
 Word was received in Warren today of the death of Whitney Dallas aged 50, a former Warren resident, which occurred during the night at Detroit, Mich., where he had been ill for the past three years. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. J. S. Offerle, this city, and Mrs. Ralph Newhall, North Warren, and a brother, Ernest Dallas, Lansing, Mich. The body is to be brought to Warren and plans for the services will be announced Monday.

TIMES TOPICS

RESTING COMFORTABLY
 According to reports from Warren General Hospital this afternoon, the two Osborne Company workmen injured in yesterday's explosion are resting fairly comfortably and it has not yet been found necessary to amputate the foot of Arthur Brill, of Franklin. The other man, Herbert Lehman, of Tionesta, is suffering from cuts and internal injuries.

No Decision on Drafting of Workers

 Payment of time and a half for work over 40 hours.
 The fier expressed a belief that former farm workers now in industry should be instructed to "go back to the farms" or be drafted. Some members of the senate military committee conducting hearings on the Austin-Wadsworth national service bill said privately they expected President Roosevelt soon to make public recommendations submitted in a confidential report by his special manpower committee.

HINES LOBBYING FOR A.F.L. AT WASHINGTON

Washington, March 19.—(P)—Lewis G. Hines, former Pennsylvania secretary of labor and industry, now in Washington as a lobbyist for the American Federation of Labor.
 He has purchased a home near Fort Myer, Va., near where he formerly lived.
 Hines was an assistant to AFL President William Green before he joined the cabinet of former Pennsylvania Governor Arthur H. James in 1939.

THREE DIE IN FIRE IN HOME NEAR BEAVER

Beaver, March 19.—(P)—A farmer, his son and daughter-in-law burned to death early today when their home in the village of Beaver, Pa., was destroyed by fire. The victims were Robert James Barclay, the father; George Wayne Barclay, his son, and Mrs. Eva Barclay, wife of George.
 Mrs. Anna Barclay, 42, wife of Robert, is in a critical condition in Rochester General Hospital.

Form a Share-The-Ride Club to Get More Gas

Washington, March 19.—(P)—Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown advised eastern A gasoline book holders today that, except in rare cases, they will be unable to get supplemental rations unless they form ride-sharing clubs.
 Brown's statement anticipated a rush by A book holders for extra gasoline because, beginning Monday, A rations in the east will, in effect, be cut in half. The coupons will remain good for three gallons each, but will have to last for four months instead of the present two months.
 Brown said "car owners in the east will be eligible, beginning March 22, for supplemental rations for necessary driving to and from work, or in connection with work. However, to get these additional rations, applicants must first form a car club to carry three or more other persons to work regularly."

BULLETINS

 New Delhi, March 19.—(P)—Fighting flared up again yesterday on the Mayu peninsula in western Burma where a British army has been threatening Akyab, but east of the Mayu river Japanese pressure has slackened, a British communique said today.
 London, March 19.—(P)—Edgar Louis Granville, independent member of parliament, declared in an address at Slough today that reports Adolf Hitler was ill were sheer propaganda intended to lull the United Nations into complacency.
 New York, March 19.—(P)—Relatives and former henchmen of Al Capone, one-time Chicago racketeer king, were among nine named in federal indictments today charging the extortion of more than $1,600,000 from major motion picture companies and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, U. S. Attorney Mathias E. Correa said today.

 In the western air war, bad weather apparently grounded RAF night raiders following yesterday's two-hour daylight assault by U. S. Flying Fortresses and Liberators on the German U-boat nest at Vegesack, 15 miles northwest of Bremen.
 The American bombers, making their deepest penetration of Germany in daylight, beat off nearly 100 Nazi fighter planes in delivering a heavy load of bombs on the submarine base and then fought their way back across the North Sea with the loss of only two planes.
